SEEING NELLIE HOME

By Hal E. Roach.

Charlie Chase attends a party and as it is about to break up, he is chosen by the hostess to escort the honored guest home. The girl has lost her key and Charlie gallantly enters the house through the second story window. Despite his effort to go quietly and unheard, he stumbles over the furniture and nearly wrecks the house. The girl impatiently waiting below decides to try the front door and finds it unlocked. The girl thanks Charlie for his efforts and says she is very glad that he did not wake up her husband. Not knowing that the girl was married Charlie becomes somewhat embarrassed and is soon put to flight by the irate husband who soon appears on the scene.
